In addition to the categories noted above, we may also collect location information if you have instructed your Device to send such information via the privacy settings on that Device, or, for example, if you have uploaded photos tagged with location information. We may use your location information directly and/or share your location with third parties. We collect and share location information in order to provide you with relevant content, to analyze your use of our Services and to improve our Services. For example, we may use your location to show you reviews of hotels, restaurants or attractions near you when you are travelling.

You can change the privacy settings of your Device at any time in order to turn off the functionality that collects and shares location information and/or the functionality to tag your photos with location information. However, turning off location-sharing may affect certain features that we offer. If you have any questions about the privacy settings of your Device, we suggest you contact the manufacturer of your Device or your mobile service provider for help.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are automatically placed on your Device when you visit almost any website. They are stored by your internet browser and contain basic information about your internet use. Your browser sends these cookies back to a website every time you revisit it, so it can recognise your Device and improve your experience by, among other things, providing you with personalised content. We also use cookies to remember your login details, so you don't have to re-enter them repeatedly when you use our Services. Other cookies help us understand your preferences.

If you delete your cookies, your access to some functionality and areas of our Services might be degraded or restricted.

We may update this Candidate Statement in the future. If we believe any changes are material, we will let you know by doing one or more of the following: sending you a communication about the changes, placing a notice on the website and/or posting an updated Candidate Statement on the website. We will note on the Candidate Statement when it was most recently updated. We encourage you to check back from time to time to review the most current version and to periodically review this Candidate Statement for the latest information on our privacy practices.
